PREFACE

Tombstone Inscriptions of Seal Township Cemeteries, Pike County, Ohio, prepared by the Pike County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society, adds another volume to the printed genealogical statistics of Pike County.

In order to save space, the following abbreviations are used:

b - born
d - died w/o - wife of s/o - son of d/o - daughter of y - year
m - month
d - days
? - questionable or not legible

All surnames, as well as the maiden name of the wife are shown in capital letters.

Under the heading of each cemetery are the names of those who copied the inscriptions - many of which were almost illegible. Be cautious in accepting tombstone dates. Besides the stones being weather-worn, some dates may have been supplied by friends or relatives years after the death. It also appears there are some graves that do not have a tombstone.

This book would not have been possible without the help of number of our members. We thank Jim Henry for drawing the map and our thanks go to all who donated their time and effort.

HISTORY OF SEAL TOWNSHIP

Seal Township is one of the first to be settled in Pike County. It is bounded on the west and north by the Scioto River, on the east by Beaver and Jackson Townships, and on the south by Union and Scioto Townships.

The first school-house was erected during the winter of 1810-'11. It was located in the forest three miles west of Piketon.

The Chenoweth brothers settled not far from the village of Jefferson, which was first platted in the year of 1814. One year later the county of Pike was organized and named after General Z. M. Pike, and the hamlet of Jefferson was called Piketon.

In 1840 Piketon had a population of 507 and was still the leading town in the county. It had three churches - Presbyterian, Methodist, and German Lutheran. It had a fair school building, four general stores and a newspaper.

The first serious drawback to the prosperity of the Town was the building of the canal west of the river leaving Piketon without a bridge to reach the canal. The removal of the county seat from Piketon to Waverly in 1861 was another serious blow to the prosperity of the Township.

The following are some of the early citizens of the Township:

Rev. J. M. Adams, O. C. Andre, M.D., C. W. Bailey, John G. Barger, W. E. Barger, John M. Barnes, Noah Boiler, Henry Brown, Charles Cissna, Robert Lucas, Benjamin Daniels, R. J. Dieterich, George Downing, R. C. Emory, J. M. Foster, Alexander Gregg, Hon. John W. Gregg, George Hays, Hon. Alfred Moore, Colonel James Moore, William Patterson, James Sargent, Snowden Sargent, Conrad Vallery, and David Ware.
